Dear Kath,

I am delighted to tell you that I passed all my final exams, graduated from Bristol University and am now registered as a vet with the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons.

I completed and passed my final year in June, with only the final viva voce examinations to pass before I could graduate and become a vet. Unfortunately, nerves got the better of me in one of my vivas and I didn't pass in the summer. This was an enormous upset for me, as it meant that I couldn't graduate and celebrate with all my friends, but I had the chance to re-take the viva in September. I worked all summer, revising hard and having practice vivas with a few of the staff at the vet school so that there would not be a repeat of what happened in the viva in June. All the hard work I put in paid off; I passed the exams and graduated on 28th September.

Since graduating, I have been very fortunate to have been offered a job at a practice in Bristol as a small animal vet. The practice is well known in this area for its high standards of care and many people tell me that they will be very understanding of the level of support I will need in my first job. I am eagerly looking forward to starting what I hope will be a successful and fulfilling career.

Thank you so much for all your help with my tuition fees. As always, I am extremely grateful for your support and I could not have become a vet without it. Thank you.

Yours sincerely

Clare Yeadon
